

The supplemental audio channel would allow WVIK to provide more local programming to new, diverse audiences. Our analog facility offers only one program service, and our location precludes adding a second analog service. The supplemental channel of HD radio offers the only possibility available to us to reach new audiences.